National Severe Weather Warning Service

Chief Forecasters Assessment
A frontal zone will become slow moving across more northern parts of England and Wales during Saturday night, with areas of persistent and at times heavy rain developing.

Rainfall totals will be very variable, but some places could have as much as 30-40 mm of rain during this period.

The Met Office have issued a Yellow Warning of Rain

Valid from 00:15 on Sun, 28th Aug 2016 until 09:00 on Sun, 28th Aug 2016

Rain will become persistent and locally heavy during Saturday night, clearing eastwards early on Sunday morning.

Please be aware of the risk of surface water flooding, which could cause local disruption to transport and outdoor activities.
